

John C. Anderson, FCSI

“In recognition of your distinguished and dedicated service to the Institute, as a Member and as a tireless organizer who gave life to the Minneapolis-St. Paul Chapter, as a Director who administered the affairs of a forceful Region, as a committee chairman whose subtle encouragement infused a spirit of excellence in co-workers, as a man who accomplished his voluminous tasks in a uniformly outstanding manner; in recognition of your perspicacious willingness to share your knowledge and experience, and in further recognition of the consummate zeal that you apply in implementing the objectives of the Institute at all levels, you are advanced to Fellowship in the Institute on this 26th day of May, 1966.”
Boston, Massachusetts

JOHN C. ANDERSON was born in Calumet, Michigan, in 1919. He is a registered architect in Michigan, and graduated from the University of Minnesota with a degree as Bachelor of Architecture in 1949.

Anderson was a founding member of the Minneapolis-St. Paul Chapter in 1958, and was the chapter's first president in 1958-1959.

He served as member and chair of numerous Institute committees, and was elected to the Institute Board in 1962 for a two-year term. In 1966 he was elected Institute Vice-President, and he was elected Institute President in 1968.

John passed away 28 January 2007.

CSI Membership

Minneapolis-St. Paul Chapter, 1958

Institute Offices, Committees

Director, 1962-1964
Vice-President, 1966
President, 1968

Awards

Institute President's Plaque, 1963
Institute President's Plaque, 1964
Certificate of Appreciation
Honorary Member
.