

Hubert M. Garriott, FCSI

*“In recognition of your distinguished and dedicated service to the Construction Specifications Institute, as a charter member, committee chairman, Vice-President and President of the Cincinnati Chapter, recipient of the Specifications Merit Award, Treasurer, President, and Chairman of the Cincinnati Chapter of AIA, you are advanced to Fellowship in the Institute on this 31st day of May, 1967.”
Miami, Florida*

HUBERT M. GARRIOTT was born in Scottsburg, Indiana in 1894. He attended Indiana Normal School earning a BA degree. He later attended Harvard University, earning a Masters degree.

Garriott worked as a draftsman for Layton Allen, Architect from 1913 to 1917. In 1917 he joined as a partner in establishing the firm Boswell & Garriott & Rammel, Architects. Later he formed the firm of Adkins & Garriott, Architects, in 1926. In 1931, he began a thirty two year association with the firm of Garriott & Becker, Architects. With the retirement of Becker in 1963, he reorganized his firm as Garriott, Bogart & Associates.

In 1957, he became one of the founding members of the Cincinnati chapter, CSI, ultimately serving as Vice President and later as chapter President.

In addition to his CSI service, Garriott was also very active with the American Institute of Architects. He served the Cincinnati Chapter AIA as treasurer and president.

CSI Membership

Cincinnati Chapter

Chapter Offices, Committees

President

Vice President