

Robert Kipp Mayer, FCSI

“In recognition of your meritorious service to the Institute through your enthusiastic leadership of technical and organization issues at the chapter, region, and Institute levels and your contributions to education as an author and teacher of the principles of specification writing and the use of building materials, you are advanced to Fellowship in the Institute on this 27th day of June, 1992.”
city, state

ROBERT KIPP MAYER was born in Rochester, New York in 1941. He is a registered architect in Florida and Oklahoma.

Mayer was a resident of Florida for many years working with architecture firms in the southern areas of Florida. He joined CSI in April, 1966 and was a member of technical and publications committees of the Miami Chapter from 1967 to 1970.

In 1970 he was elected charter president of the Fort Lauderdale Chapter and later served that chapter as chairman of various important committees.

After a move to the Jacksonville, Florida area he served in that chapter as director from 1988 to 1993 and after moving to Tulsa, Oklahoma as a director of that chapter in 1994-95. He has served the Southeast Region as a member of many important committees.

Mayer has made significant contributions to the construction industry as a guest speaker and lecturer to his home chapters and Broward Community College and as author of articles for the Construction Specifier magazine.

CSI Membership

Tulsa Chapter, 1993 to present
Jacksonville Chapter, 1988 - 1993
Fort Lauderdale Chapter, 1970 - 1990
Miami Chapter, 1966 - 1970

Institute Offices, Committees

Vice President, 1994-1997

Awards

Institute President's Plaque, 1976