

Roy F. Schauffele, FCSI

*“For your distinctively creative development and promotion of product literature binder formats, education, and competition; for your generous support and continued mentoring of construction industry students and championing of CSI-S membership recognition; and for your forceful advocacy of CSI’s welfare in a hands-on, take-charge leadership manner in identifying problems and developing workable solutions that better serve our membership, you are advanced to Fellowship in the Institute on the 23rd day of April 2004.”
Chicago, Illinois*

ROY F. SCHAUFFELE was born in Philadelphia, PA, and has lived in Live Oak, TX since 1987. After graduating from high school, he was awarded a college scholarship for football, and earned undergraduate degrees in Chemistry and Engineering, and a MBA in Marketing.

After working in the R & D departments of several Fortune 100 firms Roy opened his own firm in Texas in 1987. Division 7 Solutions, Inc. is an Architectural Rep firm with multiple offices throughout Oklahoma and Texas. Starting in 1994 Roy opened up the first of his three manufacturing companies and a minority public relations firm, all of which are still operating.

Public service efforts include being an elected city official in Live Oak followed by an appointment as a state official in Texas, and being named as an Admiral in the Texas Navy by then Gov. George Bush. Always believing that the future of CSI rested with the students, Roy was a major financial sponsor of the Texas A & M Student Design Team.

An Internationally published author and speaker, Roy has contributed several articles to our Specifier magazine, spoken at our Annual Convention and has given three CSI Audio Exchanges. Additionally, he was in the inaugural class of CCPRs, the first CCPR to serve on the Specification Competition Committee, established hard and fast guidelines and reporting responsibilities for the Institute Audit Committee and finished by being a member of the Executive Director Search Task Team which discovered our current Executive Director.
