

Edward L. Soenke, FCSI

*"In recognition of your unbridled enthusiasm and generous contributions to chapters, regions, and Institute for the advancement of construction technology throughout the nation and international arena, you are advanced to Fellowship in the Institute on this 24th day of June, 1995."
Minneapolis, Minnesota*

EDWARD L. SOENKE was born in Davenport, Iowa in 1943. He attended Iowa State University and received a Bachelor of Architecture degree in 1966, and a Masters of Architecture in 1967, from that university.

Soenke is principal of "The Design Partnership," an architectural firm in Des Moines, Iowa. He is a member of the American Institute of Architects and attained registration in Iowa in 1972, Illinois in 1992 and international registration in 1993.

He joined CSI in 1974 and has devoted many years of services as chairman or member of committees in the many chapters of which he has been a member.

Soenke has taught CDT/CCS study courses since 1980, proctored the exams for nine years, and helped develop four other exam sites in the North Central Region. He also has been a leader in developing the curriculum for the Construction Contracts Seminar at the University of Wisconsin Extension.

He strengthened and nurtured many of the chapters in the North Central Region and across the United States. He also has made new member growth a priority by initiating and encouraging new chapter development.
